On March 19, the Serge Sorokko Gallery Hosted a VIP Cocktail Reception for prominent Belgian artist and sculptor, Countess Isabelle de Borchgrave

Her new exhibition entitled "Isabelle de Borchgrave: New Sculptures" showcases over 25 new works on canvas, paper marking the first time de Borchgrave's bronzes are being displayed in the States.

de Borchgrave's latest exhibition is a stunning display of her masterful work in mixed media. Her meticulous craftsmanship is most evident in Delphos Dred constructed so intricately that they appear to have the life of fabric - one to believe that are made from paper.

"Her unique imagination and use of unconventional materials allow for stunning effects of scintillating color, shape, and texture that set her apart from other contemporary artists," said gallery owner Serge Sorokko.

The remarkable Isabelle de Borchgrave: New Paintings and Sculptures from March 20 through April 20, 2013.
