

Bay Area visual arts picks, Sept. 19-22

Kenneth Baker

Published 3:58 pm, Wednesday, September 18, 2013

Miguel Condé: A Retrospective: A 40-year survey of works in several media by an American-born Mexican painter too little known in the American art world. Modern Mexican - including Surrealist - and Northern Renaissance influences flow together in Miguel Condé's visions of human predicaments. Through Oct. 19. 10 a.m.-6 p.m. Tuesday-Saturday. Serge Sorokko Gallery, 55 Geary St., S.F. (415) 421-7770. www.sorokko.com.

- Kenneth Baker